ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

Located at the entrance to Bucks Harbor, this 25±-acre heart-shaped island offers privacy in an interesting, vibrant location. It provides a quiet retreat only yards from the mainland, together with a premium location for enjoying the harbor's yacht traffic and wildlife. The simple cabin offers spectacular southerly views of Pumpkin Island Light, the western entrance to Eggmoggin Reach, and Penobscot Bay. A deepwater dock and float are located on the harbor side, tucked into the island's northern cleft in an extremely sheltered site. The 4800± feet of shorefront include pebble beaches, cobblestones, and bold granite ledges.
