ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

A classically beautiful saltwater farm, this property encompasses the 36± acre northern point of Friendship Long Island, with broad meadows, woods, 3,425± feet of deepwater shorefront, and substantial docks on both the eastern and western sides of the island. Located on an island in Muscongus Bay and easily accessed by private boat across Friendship Harbor, the estate includes a beautifully landscaped five-bedroom farmhouse overlooking perennial beds and open fields, with easterly water views. The property also offers a large barn with a workshop and one-bedroom guest apartment, an attractive studio building, and a private two-bedroom caretaker's cottage.
